Thursday, April 27th

8:30 am - 10:00 am

Bankruptcies: We want to pay you money - Stop making it difficult!

Presented by Scott Stout, Staff Attorney; Erin Renneker, Pre Confirmation Supervisor, and John Jansing, Trustee, all from the Chapter 13 Office, Dayton

We will discuss the bankruptcy system and how the automatic stay affects state agency procedures. We will also discuss the bankruptcy system and how a creditor, such as a county treasurer, should maneuver through a Chapter 7 or a Chapter 13 bankruptcy filing, including the filing of claims.

10:30 am - Noon

County Treasurers & Foreclosures

Presented by Suzanne Mandros, Deputy Chief, Foreclosure Division, Lucas County Prosecutor's Office

The session will review best collection practices and foreclosure options available to the county treasurers. We will discuss the impact of land banking on the collection process and how it can help the neighborhood revitalization efforts (and property value stabilization) but could also hijack the treasurers' responsibility to collect taxes if the efforts are not balanced.

12:00 pm

Grab & Go (Or Stay!) Lunches

The Deli buffet will allow guests to build their own to-go box or each your lunch with colleagues before you travel home.
